

THE POST.

LEBANON, KY.

Wednesday Morning, May 31, 1894.

We are indebted to a number of James H. Garrard, of Boyle county as a candidate for the office of State Treasurer at the ensuing August election.

OBLIGATION.

In the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, you do solemnly swear and swear that you will never betray any of the secrets of this society, nor communicate them even to your nearest relatives, except within a lawful Council of the Order; that you will never permit any of the secrets of this society to be written, or in any other manner made public, except for the purpose of official instruction; that you will not vote, nor give your influence for any man, for any office in the gift of the people, unless he be an American born citizen, in favor of Americans ruling America, nor if he be a Roman Catholic; that you will, in all political matters, so far as this order is concerned, comply with the will of the majority, though it may conflict with your personal preference, so long as it does not conflict with the Constitution of the United States of America, or that of the State in which you reside; that you will not, under any circumstances whatever, knowingly recommend an unworthy person for initiation, nor suffer it to be done, if in your power to prevent it; that you will not, under any circumstances, expose the name of any member of this order, nor reveal the existence of such an association; that you will answer an imperative notice issued by the proper authority; obey the command of the State Council President, or his deputy, while assembled by such notice, and respond to the claim of a sign or cry of the Order, unless it be physically impossible; and that you will acknowledge the State Council of — as the legislative head, the ruling authority, and the supreme tribunal of the Order in the state of —, acting under the jurisdiction of the National Council of the United States of North America. Binding yourself in the penalty of excommunication from the Order, the forfeiture of all intercourse with its members, and being denounced in all the Societies of the same as a willful traitor to your God and your country.

[The President shall call up every person present by three blows of the gavel, when the candidates shall all repeat after the Vice President in concert.]

All this I voluntarily and sincerely promise with a full understanding of the solemn sanctions and penalties.

The above is the oath taken in the first degree of know nothingism. What do you think of it, candid reader? What do you think of it, candid mind? I matter what your religious or political views may be: for we speak and plead with none other—conceiving that it would be utterly useless. We approach the candid, and truly republican mind, with confidence; but the mind who can swerve from the true path of an American free-man, merely for pecuniary or mercenary motives, is unworthy the confidence of his fellow-man, and can be bought, like any other Arnold to sell their country, or like another Judas to sell their Savior, for the "mighty dollar." These we neither fear nor respect. But, thank God, there is none, or at least a very few of this disposition of persons in the county of Marion. The persons who have joined the Order in this county are vastly few, those have joined, have, we believe firmly, done so with the firm conviction of its being the only scheme which will redound to the benefit of the Republic. These men acting conscientiously, of course they have their rights, and we are the last one to speak or think harshly of them. There is another class, who suppose the k. n. doctrines to be such as only coincide with their views in regard to State and national policy; these individuals advocate the suppression of the influx of foreigners upon our soil, especially paupers, felons, &c. They have the right to advocate their principles, and furthermore, — we are strongly in favor of a portion of their belief, and consequently cannot blame them for being in favor of know nothingism, believing as they do that the party will carry out their particular views with regard to immigration. Another class of men have been driven, as it were, into the advocacy of know nothingism, by their Native American prejudices, stirred by the suspicious and unjust remarks of individuals of the other party. These men ought to be leniently dealt with, and cannot be blamed. We have endeavored to show how, in our humble opinion, the party get a foothold in the liberal and enlightened community of Marion.

We will now make a few remarks in regard to the candidates for the office of State Treasurer.

James H. Garrard, of Boyle county, is a candidate for the office of State Treasurer at the ensuing August election. We are indebted to a number of James H. Garrard, of Boyle county as a candidate for the office of State Treasurer at the ensuing August election.

One of the largest audience which we have ever seen, was assembled in and around the Court House of this place on yesterday, to hear the Hon. Beverly L. Clarke. Never do we remember hearing a more eloquent or effective political speech, than on that occasion. The gentleman was evidently laboring under both mental and bodily fatigue, but, notwithstanding this, coupled as it was with the intense heat of the day, we hear, but one expression, and that of entire satisfaction. He wounded the feelings of no one, and no one abused an individual or party; but he laid his subject in a courteous, dispassionate and masterly manner. The gentleman is an orator "all through the piece," and is as independent as every true American ought to be; and there is not one jot crumble of bias or prejudice in his whole composition. He stands upon the rostrum, as it were, like another Ajax, defying the lightning, so majestic and imperial is his carriage! Proud may the anti-know nothing party be of their standard bearer, Beverly L. Clarke, for he proclaims truth, and truth will ever prevail in the gallant State of old Ky.

The election of Mr. Clarke to the Governorship, then, we think as certain as the decrees of fate. Success to him say we.

Locusts.—Our woods are perfectly musical with these noisy and destructive vermin. We hear their buzzing in the cedars distinctly, when they are almost a mile off. We apprehend considerable devastation from them, for the sylvan woods are replete with them. They destroy vast quantities of timber and also injure the growing crop. One thing is a blessing which they yield in their advent, and that is, our half starved hogs will quickly become fat upon them, and the squirrels will have their attention directed from the cornfields to their destruction, as they eat an infinite number of them. Another thing, we would advise parents to prevent their children from handling or playing with them as much as possible, for upon their advent here before, we read of several instances, where little boys had caught numbers of them and confined them in their hat or in their bosoms, for the purpose of hearing them sing; and the consequence was, they were stung and died.

We understand that "Barb," of this place, has applied for, and received a commission in Captain O'Hara's company, forming for the protection of the frontiers. Barb is a good fellow, and we hope he will do well in his new sphere. He is, however, laboring under a mistake as to the battle-cry of his squad; he has understood it to be, "Victory or death!" whereas, it is "Victory or death!" When he finds out the fraud which has been practiced upon him, he will, immediately rescind the contract.

In another column of to-day's paper will be seen the advertisement of Messrs. A. S. Hardy & Son. These gentlemen are capable and get up some of the most superb articles in their line. We saw the other day, a splendid headstair which was manufactured in their establishment, and which was truly hard to beat.

Mr. Carter, of New Market, we understand, was robbed a few nights ago, of some five hundred dollars.

As Rufus Choate was once saying, a witness in one of the Marion courts, asked him what procedure he followed for alimony? The witness replied, "I was a candidate of the Lord—a minister of the Gospel." "Of what denomination?" asked the counselor. "A baptist," replied the witness. "Then," said Choate, "you are a deacon, but I don't know what you are."

Since the finding an indictment in this case, several other indictments, of which the same party are the defendants, have been returned by the grand jury. The grand jury, in its report, stated that the defendants had been found guilty of the same crime, and that they were to be tried at the same time.

Another indictment was returned against the same party, and they are to be tried at the same time.
